The Problem: Troubled Marriages

Many couples are in relationships where betrayal and neglect have created deep wounds, resulting in disconnection.

Because we are wired for relationships, the antidote for such disconnect is reconciliation and relational intimacy.

The Strategy: Equip & Empower

Our desire is to equip you for a ministry of reconciliation. This workshop will present tools for helping couples overcome conflict, disengagement, and unhealed hurt by leading them to experience biblical truths relevant to their relational struggles.
